The Modesty of Women

Naturally makes them shrink from the delicate questions, the obvious exasperations, and unpleasant local treatments, which some physicians consider essential in the treatment of diseases of women. Yet, if help can be had, it is better to submit to this ordeal than let the disease grow and spread. The trouble is that so often the woman undergoes all the annoyance and shame for nothing. Thousands of women who have been cured by Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription write in appreciation of the cure which dispensed with the examinations and local treatments. There is no other medicine so sure and safe for delicate women as "Favorite Prescription." It cures debilitating drains, irregularity and female weakness. It always helps. It almost always cures. It is strictly non-alcoholic, non-secret, all its ingredients being printed on its bottle-wrapper; contains no deleterious or habit-forming drugs, and every native medicinal root entering into its composition has the full endorsement of those most eminent in the several schools of medical practice. Some of these numerous and strongest of professional endorsements of its ingredients, will be found in a pamphlet wrapped around the bottle, also in a booklet mailed free on request, by Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y. These professional endorsements should have far more weight than any amount of the ordinary lay, or non-professional testimonials. The most intelligent women now-a-days insist on knowing what they take as medicine instead of opening their mouths like a lot of young birds and gulping down whatever is offered them. "Favorite Prescription" is of known composition. It makes weak women strong and sick women well. Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay expense of mailing only. Send to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., 21 one-cent stamps for paper-covered, or 31 stamps for cloth-bound. It sticks to the doctor, free of charge by letter. All such communications are held sacredly confidential. Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets invigorate and regulate stomach, liver and bowels.

ANOTHER DIVORCE SUIT.

Within an hour after he had sailed from New York for Europe yesterday Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt was made the defendant in a suit for divorce filed with the Supreme Court by his wife, Ellen French Vanderbilt. The nature of the action was not immediately disclosed and counsel for the plaintiff refused to say whether Mrs. Vanderbilt seeks a divorce or legal separation from her husband.

Mrs. Vanderbilt was Ellen French, daughter of the late Francis Oronoco French, president of the Manhattan Trust Company and director of many railroads. Ellen, or as she was more generally known, Elsie French, was married to Alfred Vanderbilt on January 11, 1901.

Mr. Vanderbilt as the second son of the late Cornelius Vanderbilt inherited something like $60,000,000. He has been regarded as the head of the family since the estrangement which followed the marriage of Cornelius, the eldest son, to Miss Grace Wilson. During the past year or so Mr. Vanderbilt has spent much of his time abroad.

The recent scandal in which Charles H. Wilson, Mr. Vanderbilt's stable manager, and the beautiful Florence Schenck figured is said to have taxed the patience of Mrs. Vanderbilt almost to the point of exhaustion. It will be recalled that last spring Miss Schenck then engaged to a young army officer in the South, met Wilson and Mr. Vanderbilt during a horse show at Richmond and, flattered by the attentions that were shown her, jilted her fiancé and went to England with the Vanderbilt string.

According to her story, Wilson represented himself to her as a single man and proposed to marry her. She created a sensation by driving some of Mr. Vanderbilt's horses at the London show, but a still greater sensation was created when, upon the return of Wilson and the girl to New York, he cast her off at the steamer dock.

Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt's name was bandied about quite considerably in connection with this story, and in the end some man of wealth made satisfactory settlements upon the girl. The notoriety which was thrust upon Mr. Vanderbilt in relation to Miss Schenck, his conviviality and his free and easy, democratic ways are probably at the bottom of the trouble.

A Woman Tells How to Relieve Rheumatic Pains.

I have been a very great sufferer from the dreadful disease, rheumatism, for a number of years. I have tried many medicines but never got much relief from any of them until two years ago, when I brought a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm. I found relief before I had used all of one bottle, but kept on applying it and soon felt like a different woman. Through my advice many of my friends have tried it and can tell you how wonderfully it has worked.—Mrs. Sarah A. Cole, 149 S. New St., Dover, Del. Chamberlain's Pain Balm is a liniment. The relief from pain which it affords is alone worth many times its cost. It makes rest and sleep possible. For sale by W. F. Creighton and Richard Gibson.

BOY PREACHER'S PROPHECY.

Terrified by the announcement that the world was to come to an end yesterday morning unless there was an immediate and miraculous religious awakening in the country, over fifty families who attended the Olive Street Mission at St. Louis left Monday night for St. Charles, twenty miles away, to pray. John Moss, the "boy preacher," who has drawn crowds to the mission, told his followers that in a vision he was given a glimpse of the catastrophe that would overtake the world Monday, unless the people became converted. Moss's own mother and sister have become so imbued with his preaching that they have sold a small hotel to help defray the expenses of the mission. One woman, who says she had been dumb since birth, rushed to the altar Sunday and shouted, "Glory to God, I am saved." According to Moss the world will begin ending in St. Louis, because that is the wickedest city. An earthquake and conflagration will take place.

BRIDGE WHIST AND HORSE RACING.

Bridge whist is a greater evil than betting on horse races, according to Senator Martin, member of the subcommittee of the Senate District committee to which the anti-betting bill has been referred for report to the full committee. "I believe more money is lost and more trouble and heartache is caused by bridge whist parties in Washington society than ever was caused by betting on horse races," said Senator Martin yesterday. The Virginia Senator made this remark after declaring that, while he was opposed to gambling in all its forms, he had not examined the Sims anti-betting bill, which passed the House last week, sufficiently to give an opinion on it. While Senator Martin has expressed himself opposed to gambling on horse races, he has not yet said he favors the passage of the Sims anti-betting bill, tacked on as it is to a bill for the widening of Benning road.

ELKS' NEW HOME.

The new home of the Elks, of Washington, was formally opened last night. Eight hundred members of the order, including a delegation from Alexandria lodge, were present.

The Elks' home is a model in building construction and from an architectural viewpoint is regarded as one of the handsomest clubhouses in the country. Built at a cost of $200,000, and fitted with the up-to-date accessories of a fashionable club, it will accommodate with ease even a larger membership than is now enrolled. The first spade of earth for the new home was turned just one year ago. The exalted ruler laid the cornerstone on June 11, attended by some of the leading Elks of the country, and by persons of high rank in civil and political life. The dedication of the home will probably not take place until next November. An opening in honor of the ladies will be held on Easter Monday, April 20.

There is nothing better than Colol for dyspepsia, indigestion, sour stomach, belching of gas and nervous headache. It digests what you eat. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Co.
